Monday 18th – Friday 22nd March 2019: Week A

General Notices

Our Japanese friends are coming ... (DBN)

On Wednesday 20th March, 14 Japanese students and two members of staff will be arriving at our school at 5pm. Their first day in school will be on Thursday. They will be wanting to see how students in England live and study, so they will be spending time in our lessons and with their host buddies. Let's give them a really warm Highcliffe welcome!

Try some Japanese: If you see them in the morning, say "O-hayo!" (pronounced , "Ohio"). This means "Good morning!" If you see them around after about 11am, say "Konnichi". Thank you. Mr Bryden
