Thought For The Week

Nobody can think straight who does not work. Idleness warps the mind.

Literacy - Building Your Vocabulary

Vocabulary - What are you doing to build your vocabulary?

Here's a good word - "superficial". What does it mean?

- a/ An excellent tasting fish e.g. That was a superficial bit of cod.
- b/ A good many making scheme e.g. That business idea will work, because it's superficial.
- c/ Only on the surface e.g. a superficial burn or a superficial explanation.

Answer: C. Superficial means only the surface and not deep. A burn can be superficial. An explanation can be superficial. A person can be superficial - there's not much to them in terms of character.

Try to use the word in conversation and writing. If you see Mr Bryden and can give him a correct example, he will give you a merit!
